The iron barque, Elissa, will sail to Port Aransas with the Harvest Moon Regatta in October.

Elissa coming to Port A

The 1877 Elissa, the Official Tall Ship of Texas, will accompany the Harvest Moon Regatta racers to Port Aransas this fall where it will receive visitors for tours and then proceed to Corpus Christi berths for school children tours and educational maritime exhibits. The Harvest Moon Regatta, which is hosted and organized by Lakewood Yacht Club members, starts from Galveston on Thursday, Oct. 25, and culminates in a race awards party on Saturday, Oct. 27, to celebrate the 130th birthday of the Elissa. On Mon., Oct. 29, the Elissa will move on to Corpus Christi for one week. Gov. Rick Perry will present a proclamation naming the Elissa the official Tall Ship of Texas. Monay, Nov. 5, the Elissa will pass through Port Aransas en route to Galveston.
