

PACT stages entertainment all summer

After a busy day of fishing, beachcombing, shopping or bird-watching, head over to the Port Aransas Community Theater.

The nonprofit community theater group presents entertainment year round at the new performance facility on State Hwy. 361 at Sea Isle Drive.

On tap this summer are "Old Time Radio Show," a variety show scheduled for June 7, 14 and 15; "Godspell, Jr.," a youth musical on stage July 10-12, 17-19 and 24-27; and "Lost in Yonkers," to be presented Aug. 14-16, 21-23 and 28-31.

The calendar may say "fall," but the temperature will still say "summer" come September when "Honky Tony Laundry," a music with Katie Crysups-Sikes and Marsha P. Owen is scheduled to open.

All dates are subject to change. Check the weekly editions of the South Jetty for updates.

The Port Aransas Community Theater offers something for virtually everyone, including drama, comedy and musicals. Volunteers are always needed, whether for on-stage roles or behind the scenes work. This spring, playwright Perry Steele Patton, right in brown jacket, paid a surprise visit to the cast of 'A Breath of Dusty Air.'

noon to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays.

PACT is a nonprofit organization funded by donations, ticket sales and the annual Fall Back music, wine and food tasting festival scheduled for the Saturday night before Daylight Saving Time reverts to Central Standard Time. This year's SandFest also raised funds for the theater.

Volunteer directors, actors, sound and lighting technicians, musicians, and set construction and costume design volunteers of all experience levels are always welcome. E-mail pacttheater@yahoo.com to volunteer.

PACT is manned by an all-volunteer workforce that continues to raise funds to complete various aspects of the new theater complex. Landscaping and other amenities are still lacking, so the fundraising continues.

Memberships in PACT also go to the building fund, if so designated. The memberships are tax deductible and are available in a range of prices from $25 for an individual to $50 for a family, $100 for patrons, $500 for angels and $1,000 or more for saints. To become a member, call (361) 749-6036, or make checks payable to PACT and mail them to P.O. Box 835, Port Aransas, TX 78373.

Watch the weekly editions of the South Jetty for information on upcoming productions and any changes in the schedule.
