Real estate investors and developers from across the country have discovered the ample opportunities for residential or commercial investment in Port Aransas, on Mustang and Padre Islands, and in Corpus Christi.

Few Realtors® are trusted more often by serious investors, with their biggest projects and most ambitious dreams, than Betty Turner. Quite simply, Betty is among a small handful of South Texas real estate brokers who offer the highest level of experience, local familiarity and unequalled inside knowledge that you need to sell or buy primo properties at the best prices.

As a real estate professional for four decades and former two-term mayor of Corpus Christi, Betty Turner offers her clients the invaluable advantage of knowledge and experience. Let her work for you.
